

The Italian-American Club of the CSRA

P.O. Box 211516
Augusta, GA, 30917

PURPOSE

The Club seeks to unite into one body all people who wish to work together for the preservation and deepening of Italian-American friendship and relationships. It is a purpose of this Club to foster and disseminate an appreciation of the Italian culture and customs, to maintain a continuing interest in our Italian heritage and to provide an intercultural association with other Italian-American clubs in nearby areas.

We shall strive to preserve and to promote our Italian heritage, customs and language amongst members of Italian descent in the Central Savannah River Area. Our members will be encouraged to maintain contact with friends and relatives who reside in Italy in order to sustain Italian culture and understanding. We shall represent a group whose actions will be directed meaningfully to the betterment of our community and our nation.
